BURNED BODIES.

Delving for the Victims of the Philadelphia Fire.

FOUR ALREADY RECOVERED.

A Gruesome Task Successfully Pursued. All Day and All Night Are Workmen Searching the Debris—One of the Missing Turns Up Alive.

PHILADELPHIA, April 30.—The search for the victims of the Central theater began at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. Upon the belief that the bodies would be found close to where the stairway in the right leading up from the rear of the stage was located, work was begun at that point. The rear wall of the theater, and the still higher wall of the Times building being threateningly over the workmen, great caution was necessary in digging around the base of the theater wall, lest it should be shaken down upon the men laboring at its base. After two hours and a half of slow, laborious work the searchers had the melancholy satisfaction of uncovering part of a body.

Half an hour's work brought the body completely into view, but the charred and blackened mass of flesh bore so little likeness to a human being that it could not be told whether it was a man or woman. Little more than the trunk of the body was left. The head was gone, both arms were burned off to the elbows and both legs to above the knees. All the clothing was burned away. When the workmen attempted to raise the trunk the baked flesh came away in their hands. The utmost care was necessary to prevent the body from breaking open when it was raised, but it was finally deposited in the waiting room without suffering further mutilation.

The body of the first of the unfortunate people found was taken to the establishment of the coroner's undertaker, where it was found to be that of a woman. Clothing found beneath it was identified by the wardrobe woman of the theater as that of Mrs. Flora Lorella. The search continued until noon when it had to be temporarily abandoned because of the danger of the overhanging wall falling on the searchers. Other workmen began at once tearing down the wall, and by nightfall the searchers resumed their work.

A more ghastly and weird scene than that shown within the crumbled and blackened walls of what was once the Central theater, can not be imagined. Hundred of bricks, blackened and charred timbers, gas pipes, twisted into all manner of fantastic shapes and occasional glimpses of the tawdry dresses and tinsel worn by the actors, charred and blackened by the terrible fire, were revealed by the electric lights which guided the twenty men who carefully removed the debris what was once the stage in search of the bodies of the missing actors.

Conspicuous upon a pile of debris, out of the way of the workmen was an open dead box ready to receive the remains which might be found, adding an additional somber hue to the scene. Scarcely a word was spoken except in giving directions to the men at work and the commands were given in a subdued voice as if the speaker was afraid of disturbing the dead. Every scrap of dirt and debris was closely examined by the men before it was cast aside as portions of human bodies have been found which so closely resembled the charred timbers that it required a close inspection to reveal that it was a part of what was once a human body.

This search continued without finding any more bodies until 1:30 this morning when the workmen came upon three bodies. They were all lying close together and in a fair state of preservation. They were at once taken charge of by the coroner, and soon afterward identified as Thomas Lavella, Sarah Goldman and Vincinitta Cheaton.

As fast as the bodies are removed they will be taken in charge by the coroner, and when all the missing members of the company are found their friends will be given their bodies for burial.

A careful search is also being made for the jewelry and effects of the unfortunate people, but so far but little has been found. A gold bracelet in a good state of preservation was found last night and it was at once identified as having belonged to one of the unfortunate girls who can not be found.

The bodies of two pet dogs belonging to members of the company were also found.

George S. Thatcher, who was in the audience and who was reported as missing, has returned to his home.

Enough of the ruins of The Times building have been removed to allow a partial examination to be made of the press room. The double ceiling of the room in which so much dependence was placed in the event of just such an accident that has occurred were found to have been crushed in the falling building. Two of the presses are completely covered by the debris and it is feared that they are damaged beyond repair. The third press was not so much damaged and may possibly be fit to use again. The two destroyed presses cost $42,000 apiece.

Thomas Acheson, aged thirty-seven who was burned while making his escape from the burning theater, died yesterday at the Pennsylvania hospital. Acheson is the first of those severely burned to die. Although several others are in a dangerous condition, it is believed they will all recover.

PITTSBURG, April 30.—The threatened strike of 10,000 railroad miners that, it was thought, would be inaugurated on May 1, will not, it is now believed, take place. Committees were appointed at yesterday's convention to confer with the operators, and a meeting to arrange the scale will be held shortly.

MARCHING ON CARACAS.

Latest Accounts of the Revolution in Venezuela.

ASPINWALL, April 30.—The steamship Amerique, with twenty-nine passengers, has just arrived here from La Guayra. They report that General Crespo is marching on Caracas with 18,000 infantry and 2,000 cavalry. The revolutionists are well armed. Of the infantry 8,000 are armed with Manlicher small calibre repeaters and 6,000 with martini-Henri rifles, of the latest model. Most of these guns are of Austrian manufacture and have been smuggled in from Hamburg steamships.

The cavalry is well mounted, having had the pick of the horses in the country which Crespo marched. The army is said to be accompanied by thousands of camp followers who have risen to join the revolutionists and are ready to fight as soon as arms can be found for them. Crespo is welcomed in all the villages along the line of march and money and food are supplied to him from all sides.

Before beginning his march, General Crespo detached several thousand infantry to make a demonstration against Victoria, for purpose of diverting the attention of the government generals, and giving him an opportunity to get well in advance of Palacio's army, before the latter could discover his attention to capture Caracas. The force detached to make the feint is said to be commanded by General Mora.

Half of the government forces was sent out to intercept the revolutionists. General Crespo at once broke camp and hastened by forced marches to the capital. There are but 3,500 or 4,000 troops in Caracas, as the city was deprived of most of its garrison to supply men for the decisive battle expected by Palacio to be fought near Crespo's camp on the southern shore of Lake Valencia. Many of the troops in Caracas, moreover, are suspected of disloyalty. The garrison is infested with informers, and upon their information soldiers are being arrested daily for conspiracy against the government.

The fall of Caracas is said to be certain unless Palacio's army can be united and pushed in pursuit of the revolutionists with unprecedented speed. The government cavalry is poorly mounted, however, and it is thought impossible for it to overtake the revolutionists. The infantry is in bad condition for forced marches as the army stores are low and the people of the country conceal or destroy their provisions upon the approach of Palacio's soldiers.

The condition of the country through which the opposing armies have marched is desperate. The revolution has demoralized a large part of the population. Bands of plunderers and highwaymen, calling themselves revolutionists, infest all districts. They make raids of the villages, burn the houses and rob the shops. Dozens of wealthy men have been kidnapped and held for ransom. There is absolutely no trade in the region thus afflicted. Business men are fleeing with their money, or are burying it and hastening to the seaport towns.

The province of Tachira suffers especially from the operation of these raiders. The national military hands are too full to allow it an opportunity to punish the freebooters and the legitimate followers of Crespo do not interfere as they derive benefits from the complete demoralization of the population.

It was reported just before the sailing of the Amerique that a recruiting company from Palacio's army was surrounded and massacred by the people of a country town in Tichara.

It is reported from La Guayra that on April 26, General Crespo and an advance body of his troops, numbering 6,000 men, were within thirty-six hours of the city. The rest of the army was then about one day's march behind and it was thought that Crespo would wait for them to join him before attacking the capital.

Crespo has captured Casanas, Palacio's minister of the interior. He has warned Palacio that, should further cases of cruelty toward suspected revolutionists in Caracas occur, Casanas will be taken out and shot.

Panic prevails in the capital. Government troops are throwing up earthworks before the city, and citizens have been compelled to work day and night with picks and shovel. Cattle are being driven into the city, and the garrison has been provisioned for six weeks. Most of the shops are closed and the price of food is so exorbitant that the poorest people are starving to death.

Arrests have almost ceased as the prisons are full. Spies are in almost every house, however, and men suspected of disloyalty are under the surveillance of military and police. The attack of the revolutionists, it is expected, will be made within two or three days. It is believed that Palacio is preparing to flee, as the main body of his army is too far distant to succor him before the attack and the garrison is too weak to offer prolonged resistance.

The capital is full of rumors as to plots against Palacio's life, and on last Sunday night four men were arrested, charged with a conspiracy to blow up the palace with dynamite. As there has been no trial or examination outside of prison walls, nothing is known as to the foundation of the accusations. Despite the accumulating evidence of his approaching fall, it is believed that Palacio will defer his flight to the last moment.

Still Destitute.

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex., April 30.—Distribution of food sent from this section to the famine sufferers on the Rio Grande, in the Rio Grande City section, began yesterday, when rations were sent to 500 people, some of whom were actually starving. Unless further assistance is soon had many of the sufferers will die. The greatest distress is reported from the country back of the Rio Grande, where there are many cases of Mexicans who had hundreds of cattle before the drought, but are now destitute, their cattle having died.

DEMAND OF THE BREWERS.

Important Action Taken By the Buffalo Convention.

BUFFALO, April 30.—At yesterday's session of the Brewers' employes' convention, a resolution was adopted, directing the secretary to ask of the governor of Illinois the pardon of Fielding, Neebe and Schwab, the three men now in Joliet penitentiary serving time for complicity in the Chicago riots. President Weisman, of the Bakers' union of America, pledged the co-operation of his union with the brewers in the work of reform.

It was decided to adopt a standard union label for all kegs containing union made beer. A boycott was declared against Columbus non-union beer. The scale of wages was made the same for workmen in different cities where beer is sent to a common market. It was decided that hereafter ten hours shall constitute a day's work for all members of the National Brewery Workmen's association. A resolution was passed directing that an effort be made to reorganize the brewers' unions of Philadelphia and Boston which seceded from the association during the strike of 1888.

THE LAST REVEILLE.

This is to the Ohio Veterans of the Mexican War.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 30.—William Davis, charged with an infamous crime upon his nine-year-old daughter, was convicted in the criminal court yesterday and given twenty-one years. The verdict met with marked signs of approval in the court room and the audience came near breaking into applause. The verdict inflicted the maximum penalty which the law provides.

Inquiry brought out the fact that no juror doubted Davis's guilt, but that three favored fifteen years as the penalty, while nine stood from the first for the maximum. After long argument the three were led to abandon their position. If Davis is a well-behaved prisoner he will be released in thirteen years, under the "good time" law.

Objecting to Government Troops.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., April 30.—The settlers of Johnson county have forwarded a series of resolutions to Senators Warren and Cary and President Harrison, denouncing the action of Acting Governor Barber in permitting an invasion of Wyoming by an armed force of men and the employment of United States troops for the removal of civil prisoners in violation of the constitution of Wyoming. The resolutions furthermore declare that a continuance of the range cattle business within legal limits is compatible with the best interests of the county and that protection will be given to all engaging in such business as long as they abide by the law of the land.

He Thinks So Still.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., April 30.—Elder May, of the Christian church of Sellersburg, is the first minister heard of in this section to advocate the opening of the world's fair on Sunday. In one of his recent sermons the elder made such a declaration to his congregation, and a short time thereafter the old heads of his flock were about to revolt, and the elder was scored so roundly that he was compelled to substitute a modification in effect that "the world's fair at Chicago should be kept open on Sundays for worship only." Despite the fact that the elder was compelled to modify his original declaration, it is said that he still clings thereto.

Train Ditched.

MYRTLE CREEK STATION, Or., April 30.—Train wreckers ditched the north-bound California express a mile north of here yesterday. Two ties were placed crosswise on the track and the engine, mail and express cars left the rails. Engineer Morris jumped and escaped with cuts and bruises on the head. Fireman Gallings was caught between the tender and tank and had both legs broken. He was badly injured by steam. The track is torn up for 200 feet. There is no clew to the perpetrators, but robbery is believed to have been the motive.

Surrounded By a Mob.

CINCINNATI, April 30.—A dispatch from Nashville at 1 o'clock this morning says that a large number of men from the Goodlettsville neighborhood came in last night and at that hour gathered around the jail awaiting further additions to their force before attempting to lynch the men charged with outraging Miss Bruce on Thursday. The officers were prepared for the attack.

Oldest Woman in Ohio Dead.

LEBANON, O., April 30.—Aunt Jane Robinson, the oldest woman in Warren county, and possibly in Ohio, died last night, aged about one hundred and six years. She had lived here over sixty years, and left a small army of descendants. She was locally famous as a willing nurse in dangerous diseases, and also a veritable Amazon when in a fight with men, whom she always whipped.

California Still Shaking.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 30.—Reports from Stockton, Woodland, Davisville, Fairfield, Benicia and other surrounding points show a slight shock of earthquake at about 4:10 p. m. yesterday. The vibrations were north to south, and very little damage reported.

Will Observe an Old Custom.

MOORE'S HILL, Ind., April 30.—The old Teutonic custom of going on May Day morning to the highest hill top and greeting the rising sun with strains of music will be observed on Sunday by Lawrenceburg Germans with all its ancient ceremony.

Drunk Concentrated Lye.

BRAZIL, Ind., April 30.—This morning the two-year-old child of W. T. Shanks, while playing about the house, found a can of concentrated lye and drank of it. The child's mouth, throat and stomach were horribly burned, and death is probable.

GROWING BETTER.

Such is the Condition of Business Everywhere.

R. G. DUN & COMPANY'S REVIEW.

The Volume of Business Continues to Surpass All Previous Records—The Great Depression of Cotton Has but Little Effect in the South—Collections Satisfactory—Failures of the Week.

NEW YORK, April 30.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: More favorable weather in many parts of the country during the past week has brought better reports of business. Undoubtedly distribution has been much retarded by the backward season and the condition of country roads and in some quarters collections have been slow on that account. But this week the improvement in such quarters has been general, and meanwhile the volume of business continues to surpass all previous records.

Gaining but little, and yet gaining at the east over last year, and falling behind only about 1 per cent. at the south in the aggregate, notwithstanding the great depression in the price of cotton, the volume of trade has been over 10 per cent. greater than in any other year at the west, though on the Pacific slope some decrease appears. That collections are on the whole satisfactory, the condition of the money markets and reports from other cities clearly show. In all parts of the country the supply of money is abundant, but the demand is not especially active.

Boston reports trade fairly active. Cotton mills are doing well and closely sold up, woolen mills are fairly well employed, and while buyers of boots and shoes are cautious, western advices are encouraging. At Philadelphia wool is quiet and firm and trade in other branches fair. At Baltimore near-by trade improves, though southern trade is smaller, and the city supplies a wider territory. Jobbers show a good gain over past years, though with low profits, and the boot and shoe trade is increased.

At Pittsburg no improvement is seen in iron, and pig sells fairly, but at low prices, while finished iron is produced in large quantities, though makers complain of unprofitable trades. At Cincinnati sales of leaf tobacco exceed last year's 10 per cent., and whisky is active and firm. At Detroit trade is very fair and freights slightly improved. At Chicago merchandise sales much exceed last year's and improvement is seen in all lines and in manufactures. Receipts of nearly all products show a fair increase over last year, though in cured meats, lard and flour some decrease is noted. Cattle receipts on Monday were the largest ever known in a day, and for the month at western points the gain over last year is considerable. Milwaukee reports good trade, with lumber operations greatly aided by heavy rains.

At St. Louis trade is strong in all lines. At St. Paul jobbing trade is brisk and the weather has been favorable for seeding; Minneapolis reports fair trade. Business at Kansas City is healthy, though cattle receipts are light and prices higher. At Denver slight improvement is seen, and at Salt Lake trade is quiet. The south still reports unsatisfactory trade at many points, though prospects are considered brighter at Savannah, and collections are good at Nashville. Trade at New Orleans is quiet, the demand for cotton being moderate, sugar quiet, but firm, and rice steady with moderate demands.

The striking feature of the past week has been the immense and unprecedented trade in dress goods. Flannels have been active, the demand being earlier than usual, but agents still lack their usual orders for men's woolsens. Sales of wool at Boston, Philadelphia and New York have been 88,748,576 pounds this year against 85,026,576 last year, a gain of 8 per cent. Orders for boots and shoes are many and pressing and shipments gaining rapidly on last year's, being for the year thus far only 1.7 per cent. behind. A better feeling is seen in iron, and the Thomas company is now reducing stocks. The western demand for structural iron, barbed wire and pipe is very heavy, and large structural orders are expected here. For the first time in the history of the country exports of iron products have exceeded imports in value for eight months of the current fiscal year.

Speculation in breadstuffs has advanced wheat one cent. Corn is one and one-half cents stronger, but oats a cent lower, and pork products are lower. Both receipts and exports of cotton fall behind last year's and sales of 928,000 bales here have resulted in no change in the price for spot. Oil is two cents lower and coffee unchanged. Seeding at the west has progressed rapidly and within a short time new crop prospects will control the situation.

The money market has been undisturbed and easy. Though railroad earnings continue large, stocks are dull and rather lower than a year ago.

The business failures during the last seven days number, for the United States 186, Canada 25, or a total of 211, as compared with 201 last week, 236 the week previous to the last, and 255 for the corresponding week of last year.

Chapter of Accidents.

FRANKLIN, Ind., April 30.—Several accidents occurred here yesterday. The seven-year-old daughter of Charles Vannys fell from a fence and broke her arm in two places. The fifteen-year-old son of Garret Terhune was thrown violently from a horse, his right leg being broken. Thomas Bunare, a brakeman on a southbound train, was shot yesterday in the right thigh by a negro tramp who was about to be ejected from the train. The tramp was later arrested in the woods near which he had jumped off. The injuries of the wounded man will probably not prove fatal.

MAYSLEY.

We are enjoying some lovely weather. House cleaning is now the talk among the ladies.

The outlook for a good wheat crop was never better.

The whitewash delegation is around now looking for a job.

Corn planting is now in full blast, and the ground in fine order.

The tobacco plants are reported looking well, some as large as a 25-cent piece.

Mrs. Mattie Taylor is making some needed improvements to her residence—a new fence, etc.

Elder Simmons, former pastor of the Baptist Church in this place, left this week for his new home in Virginia.

Alexander Duke and wife went to Millersburg last Monday to visit his sister, Mrs. Jefferson, who is on the sick list.

John T. Worthington, of Tollesboro, was here this week visiting his brothers and sisters. He is now running a bus from Tollesboro to Vanceburg.

We called to see Mr. George Riley last Sunday and found him quite lively; talks fluently and his memory is very good. He is in his eighty-fourth year.

Mrs. Rachel Small and Mrs. Julia Longnecker are both in poor health. The former is almost helpless, while the latter is very feeble. They are both well stricken in years.

A. A. Price, who has been pastor of the M. E. Church for some three or four years, left last Tuesday for New Providence, in Fayette County. He has made many friends here who are loth to give him up. He is an upright, honest, Christian gentleman. May success attend him.

MT. OLIVET, ROBERTSON COUNTY.

Arlis Throckmorton is in the city.
Dr. L. C. Holmes, W. C. Deming, J. T. Newman, J. W. Zoller and Robert Buckler will go to Cincinnati Sunday to hear Bob Ingersoll lecture.

Charles Morford, Robert Buckler and James Morrison, committee, have been at work revising our town laws, and will make their report at the next regular meeting of the Board of Trustees.

John L. Chamberlain, of Maysville, while unsuccessful so far in organizing a K. of P. lodge here, has at least made many warm friends for himself, and his new acquaintances are of the opinion that he is a true Kentuckian in more ways than one.

Miss Elmira Grinstead, the handsome and accomplished daughter of Rev. Grinstead, is training her pupils for the purpose of giving a musical concert in the near future. Miss Grinstead seems to be the happy possessor of a musical gift, and is especially adept in her instructions. All lovers of music should encourage her worthy efforts.

W. B. Jett, the hospitable junior member of the firm of Wells & Jett, druggists, who, Sunday morning narrowly averted a watery grave by plunging headlong into the murky waters of North Fork, near Bridgeville, and whose timely discovery and rescue by ex-Sheriff Linville brought gladness to the hearts of his many friends, desires to state to those of his friends who may have been otherwise informed, that his actions were neither premeditated nor intentional. Any intimation of such intention on the part of genial "Bo" would be in the nature of an injustice, for if there is an individual extant who would not change the world the least bit had he the power, it surely is Bo. We regret exceedingly that such a report has been credited sufficiently to be commented upon.

A Hasty Conclusion.

Wednesday evening, Capt. J. H. Myers' train contained a number of raftsmen bound for Pleasant Valley. Everything was lovely until the train reached New Forrest, where it takes a side track to allow the south-bound freight to pass. One of the logmen was standing on the platform and was very much interested in the movement, and when he saw the rapidly approaching freight he yelled to the conductor, "Captain, you'd better jump, we're going to have a conclusion with that other train!" Capt. Myers tried to explain the situation to him, but the logman couldn't see it that way, and after warning the conductor again, off he jumped to escape what he thought was going to be a horrible accident.—Bourbon News.

Notice of Suits Affecting Realty to be Filed in County Clerk's Office. Legislative Doings.

The State Senate yesterday passed the Newman bill requiring notice to be filed of the institution and pendency of certain actions affecting real estate in the County Clerk's office of the county wherein said real estate lays. It provides that "it shall be the duty of all persons who have instituted, or shall hereafter institute, any action or cross-action in any of the courts of this State, or in any of the courts of the United States sitting in this State, to recover real estate, or any interest therein, in the possession of or claimed by another or any action to enforce the specific performance of any bond for a deed or contract for the sale or leasing of real estate, or any action to acquire, assert or enforce any lien or real estate other than vendor's liens, and mortgage liens of record in the proper office, to file with the Clerk of the County Court in the county where said real estate is situated a notice of the institution and pendency of such action or cross-action stating the court in which it is pending, when instituted, the names of the parties thereto, plaintiff and defendant, and containing a full description of the real estate involved in the action." The act does not apply to suits for forcible entry or detainer.

It is made the duty of the County Clerk to file and preserve as public records all such notices and to keep in a book, to be used for that special purpose, an index and cross-index of such notices, in the same manner that deeds are indexed; and for his services in so doing he shall receive a fee of 25 cents for each notice, to be paid before the notice is filed.

Two bills were introduced in the House yesterday—one to prevent convict labor from encroaching too much in line of competition with home free labor.

The appropriations as finally agreed on will aggregate $88,000 instead of $94,000, as originally intended. The cost of 400 cells for the Frankfort prison is estimated at $55,000. A new chapel is to be added to each of the prisons, and a large workshop and macadamized grounds are among the improvements at Eddyville. The walls of each are to receive some new work.

Closing Exercises.

Mrs. C. M. Bland's school closed yesterday afternoon for the summer vacation, with an entertainment in the school room on Sutton street. She has about twenty pupils, boys and girls, ranging in age from six to eleven years, and it was a bright and happy scene that presented itself to the parents and other visitors who attended the closing exercises. The little ones acquitted themselves with much credit. The programme consisted of recitations and was as follows:

"The Smack in School".....Elizabeth Kirk
"No Chance for a Boy".....Bruce Owens
"Cherish Kindly Feelings".....Edna Greene
"Grandmother's Story".....Isabel Watson

PORK PACKING AND PROVISIONS.

[Cincinnati Price Current, April 28.]
The total packing for the week in the West has been about 215,000 hogs, compared with 185,000 the preceding week, and 180,000 for corresponding period last year. The total from March 1 is 1,515,000, against 1,770,000 last year—decrease, 255,000 hogs. The quality is generally good for the time of year. Prices have shifted moderately, and at the close show little change in comparison with a week ago. The grain in the Western packing compared with the preceding week is about balanced by the decreased Eastern movement of hogs, which implies that the aggregate marketing has not increased in a manner which the packing returns suggest. In the provision trade the Chicago market has been somewhat changeable for mess pork, with nothing new in the trade other than shifting futures; for meats and lard the market has ruled fairly steady during the week, and the general distribution of product quite liberal.
The coming of the large supplies of hogs within the next few days is a weight upon the market, and operating to discourage speculative interest among traders. Quite likely the future is overdiscouraged in this respect, and any important change in values may be upward instead of downward. The last market appears to exhibit considerable strength. The export clearances of product for the week were fairly liberal but not large, although considerably in excess of corresponding time last year.

CINCINNATI TOBACCO MARKET.

Of the 114 hds (old) 17 sold from $1.50 to $3.90, 29 from $4 to $5.95, 66 from $6.10 to $7.90, 11 from $8 to $9.70, and 7 from $10.25 to $12.75.

THE BOYS IN BLUE.

Doings of the Annual Meeting of the Department of Kentucky, G. A. R.

The Department of Kentucky, G. A. R. convened Thursday in annual meeting, at Lebanon. It was called to order by Hon. S. G. Hillis, of Lewis County, Department Commander.

After prayer by Chaplain W. Wood, Commander Hillis made his report for the year. On the subject of pensions he said: "If we are true to ourselves we will see that every comrade disabled by age, sickness or accident, and his widow and orphans placed upon the pension roll, and spot with your free ballot any party, man or set of men, who, under the false cry of fraud and the wolfish disguise of economy, refuse or fail to appropriate a full sufficiency of this great and wealthy Government's funds and her unlimited resources to comfortably sustain her saviors and defenders."

A. S. Cole, Assistant Adjutant, then read his report, showing that there was expended for charity during the past year $793, and that the order lost fifty-four members by death.

The report of the Assistant Quartermaster General, T. F. Guthrie, showed that the receipts for the year were $4,966; disbursements, $2,249; balance on hand $2,792.

The election of State Commander came off after supper. General E. H. Hobson was victorious. The race, after a few ballots, narrowed down to a fight between him and Collector Albert Scott, of Louisville. Hobson won by 123 votes to 67. T. E. Livesy, of Covington, who had a good following, combined with Hobson, and this secured Scott's defeat. As soon as the vote was announced Colonel Scott arose and moved that the election be made unanimous.

Major Burchett, U. S. Marshal of this district, was then nominated for Senior Vice Commander. He withdrew his name, and at that point a motion for adjournment until 8 o'clock Friday morning was adopted.

The election of the other officers, yesterday, resulted as follows:

Senior Vice Commander—T. E. Livesy, of Covington.

THINKS IT WILL PAY.

The Editor of the Mt. Olivet Tribune Still Enthusiastic Over the Electric Road.

Editor Zoller of the Mt. Olivet Tribune-Democrat is still enthusiastic over the proposed electric railway between Maysville and that point. He says:

"It is conceded by all who know the man that William H. Cox is not only the most public-spirited citizen in Maysville but in Northeastern Kentucky as well. Whenever he takes hold of the Maysville and Mt. Olivet Electric Railway the enterprise is a go, all predictions to the contrary. Failure is not, never has been and never will be a constituent part of his make up. He is the man to lead, and under his leadership the line will be a grand success."

"Let the agitation of the question continue; let all the facts come to the surface. As the people become acquainted with the extraordinary possibilities of the proposed road the feeling in behalf of its early construction will assume greater magnitude. An enterprise that promises such a multitude of benefits to the people as a whole, and such a large dividend on amount invested for its construction will not go begging long for support or investment. In a future issue we will present facts and figures showing that the electric railway will pay a net dividend of not less than 25 per cent., unless the running expenses exceed 50 per cent. of the gross receipts."

MAY DAY PROSPECTS

It Is Anxiously Looked Forward to by the Old World.

NO TROUBLE FEARED IN FRANCE

Still the Police and Even the Military Are Prepared—Other Countries Not So Confident—The Situation Sized Up on the Eve of the Eventful Day—Foreign Dispatches.

PARIS, April 30.—It is still thought by the authorities that despite recent occurrences there is no likelihood of any troubles occurring in France in connection with the forthcoming May Day demonstrations. In the first place, May Day falls on a Sunday, which is habitually a day of rest among the working classes, and although the municipal elections are held throughout France—except in Paris, which is governed by a special law—on the same day, there appears to be no probability that they will lead to any disturbance.

M. Paul Lafargue, the workingmen's deputy for Lille, in a conversation had with him a few days ago, said that since his election in November last, he had visited forty-nine workingmen's centers in France and had spoken at all in the interests of socialism and he felt convinced that if the socialist party did not carry the day at the forthcoming municipal elections, they would at all events cut a prominent figure in the results.

It was not the intention of the socialist party, as at present advised, to resort to violence to attain their ends. On May Day next they would remain within the law, and whatever manifestations they might make would be of a purely peaceful character.

"I have seen," said M. Lafargue, "the president of the council and minister of the interior, M. Loubet, and have assured him that there is nothing to be feared on the part of the working classes, and at the same time I expressed to him the hope that no agents would be put forward by the police to provoke the people."

"M. Loubet told me," continued M. Lafargue, "that he did not intend to take any special measures in view of May Day. There would be no appeal to the military and no greater display of police than would be esteemed necessary to preserve the peace at the municipal elections."

The recent dynamite outrages have, however, caused a feeling among the people that, despite the reiterated assurances of the authorities that no trouble will occur on May Day, the 1st of May will witness rioting and bloodshed not only in Paris, but also in the various labor employing sections throughout the country. Notwithstanding the assertions that the anarchists have no organization, that each individual acts on his own responsibility, the public generally point out the recent explosions and the attempts to cause explosions as direct proof to the contrary, claiming that the whole series of outrages have been the work of a regularly organized band of anarchists.

Though the authorities have repeatedly said that no trouble was anticipated in this city, they are nevertheless taking the most extensive precautions to repress any disorders May Day. On that day the municipal elections will take place throughout France except in Paris, and it is feared that the crowds in the towns where elections occur, excited by partisan feeling, may, perhaps, fall an easy prey to anarchist agitators, who are certain to inveigh against government and society if the occasion offers.

In Paris, which city is governed by a special law in regard to the municipal elections, no disturbances of a political nature will, of course, occur. The anarchists, however, are given to take advantage of any popular excitement to make trouble and they may, perhaps, try to incite the city workingmen to rioting. The police will attempt to prevent any speech making in the streets and a large force of military will be held in readiness to aid them if it is required.

The prefect of police, in an interview Friday, said he felt confident that May Day will pass quietly.

Prince Ferdinand's Life in Danger.
VIENNA, April 30.—A dispatch from Galatz, Roumania, says that the police believe that they have discovered a conspiracy against the life of Prince Ferdinand of Roumania. Owing to certain revelations made in a shoemaker's shop the police found there eighteen dynamite bombs. The shoemaker and his wife were arrested and it is reported that they have made a confession which gives a clue to the conspirators. The conspiracy is believed to be of Russian origin.

Latest Anarchist Outrage.
VIENNA, April 30.—Incendiaries, supposed to be anarchists, are again active in this city and vicinity. Their latest outrage is the burning of the panorama of "Christ Crucified" by Pighelm, a work of great labor and considerable art. The panorama has had a strong religious influence on the common people, and for this reason it was odious to the anarchists. The people are strongly condemning the inefficiency of the authorities in not bringing the guilty parties to justice.

PARIS, April 30.—Two soldiers were arrested yesterday in Marseilles for intriguing with anarchists. The soldiers received anarchist literature and distributed May Day protests in the barracks and betrayed to anarchists the orders of the commanders as to action of the troops on May Day.

Fleeing from May Day Dangers.
BRUSSELS, April 30.—The hotels here are crowded with people who have fled from French and Italian cities to avoid the dangers of May Day. Special trains are run to accommodate the rush of fugitives.

Looking Them Up.
PARIS, April 30.—Three desperate characters, supposed to be anarchist plotters, have been arrested at Choisy-Leroy. The police regard the capture as important.

CONGRESS.

How the Day Was Put in By Our National Representatives.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The severe rains and the consequent reduction of attractions at the race course, the races being postponed, were the prevailing causes for a quorum in the house yesterday. The sergeant-at-arms submitted a report upon the order of the house to arrest members absent Thursday without leave. Twelve members were brought before the bar of the house and compelled to give excuses for their absence. Two hours were thus consumed in personal explanations which were ludicrous in many instances and finally all delinquents were excused. The house then went into committee of the whole on the private calendar, the pending bill being that for the relief of Henry H. and Charlotte K. Sibley which has been pending for five weeks. It was finally referred to the court of claims for adjustment, and pending discussion on the bill for relief of Hyman K. Johnson, the committee arose and the house took a recess until 8 o'clock, it being private pension bill night.

At the night session pension matters were discussed, but no bills were passed, and at 10:30 the house adjourned.

NEW YORK, April 30.—Several linemen were engaged in taking down poles on the roof of the building at 20 Warren street, yesterday evening, when one heavily weighted with wires toppled against a chimney. Brown may die.

COLUMBUS, O., April 30.—Another murder has been added to Perry county's list, the victim dying in this city last night. A week ago Andis Verco, a Hungarian miner, was brought to St. Francis hospital badly cut about the head and neck, the result of an affray in a Shawnee saloon. He died last night.

Another Jack the Ripper.

ARKADELPHIA, Ark., April 30.—D. R. Tucker, a white man, was murdered in "Jack the Ripper" fashion Thursday at Gunn Springs by unknown persons. After nameless mutilations upon his person the murderer severed the head from the body and then threw the remains into a small stream where they were discovered by a negro.

Killed With a Base Ball Bat.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., April 30.—Last evening during a quarrel Albert Anson, eleven years old, struck Claude Lake on the head with a base ball bat, inflicting a wound from which he died two hours later. The Anson boy has not been arrested on account of his youth.

Hanged, but Still Alive.

HARRINGTON, Miss., April 30.—It is reported that Coleman Blackburn, who was hanged here on April 20, is alive at the home of a relative in Franklin county. He hanged for thirty-six minutes and was pronounced dead. While en route to the grave yard a scratching was heard inside the coffin, and upon removing the lid it was found that Blackburn was alive.

Fate of a Wealthy Indiana Bachelor.
BROWNSTOWN DEPOT, Ind., April 30.—Carl Doer, a wealthy bachelor farmer, while going to his home Thursday night was murdered and robbed by parties unknown. His body was found at Venice school house, a quarter of a mile east of here, at an early hour Friday morning. There is no clue to the guilty parties, but every effort will be made to run them down and bring them to the bar of justice.
